

Dukesbridge House, Reading

23 Duke Street, Reading RG1 4SA

Duke Street is one of Reading's most popular business locations and is close to the centre of town next to the Oracle Centre and alongside the River Kennet. Businesses of all kinds are based on the street - which also features some excellent contemporary bars and restaurants.

Our offices are equipped to a high standard, with a wide choice of spaces available, from two person accommodation to entire floors. A comprehensive service package, charged per person, covers the use of our break-out area, tea points, reception services and copying facilities - so there are no hidden costs to worry about.

We've also installed state-of-the-art networking facilities which allow us to meet all your IT requirements flexibly, whether you need a simple internet connection or your own private LAN. Plus you'll benefit from our VoIP telephone technology, which offers unlimited local and national calls for a fixed monthly price.
